

Fellow Status Revocation Request

Election as an AAAS Fellow is an honor and all Fellows are expected to meet the commonly held standards of professional ethics and scientific integrity. In the rare case where an elected Fellow no longer meets this expectation, AAAS will, in its sole discretion, consider revoking Fellow status in cases of proven scientific misconduct, serious breaches of professional ethics, or when the Fellow in the view of AAAS otherwise no longer merits the status of Fellow.

Please read the policy and FAQs for the requirements necessary to submit a revocation request. Only AAAS members may submit a request. To check the status of your membership or obtain your member number, please call 1-866-434-AAAS (2227). The identity of the submitter will remain confidential from the Fellow.

Please complete all fields and submit via email to fellowinquiry@aaas.org. All other questions should also be sent to fellowinquiry@aaas.org.

A request for revocation of Fellow status must include an investigative report that documents findings, sanctions, or actions taken from an independent organization or agency. Alternatively, a public announcement of the information in a report, or actions that have been taken, may be submitted. Media reports alone may not be sufficient to support a revocation request. AAAS will only consider requests for revocation filed within four years of publication of the report or announcement of the finding, sanction, or action (a clause that is waived through October 15, 2020), and will not consider requests when the Fellow is deceased.

(Please include attachments or links to reports or announcements)

Please be aware that any comments you share here will be provided to the CCA as they consider the request, and will also be provided to the Fellow, should the request proceed to revocation panel review stage. The requester's name will not be shared with the CCA or the Fellow, but please be cautious of including any identifying information about yourself or others.
