November 2018

HIGHLIGHTS

The Right to Science  AAAS addresses how best to put the right to science to work across the globe in testimony before the United Nations in Geneva. Read »

10 Nov 2018

World Science Day for Peace and Development

October 23–25, 2019
Washington, DC
AAAS Headquarters
(and livestreamed)
9:30 am - 11:30 am

OTHER EVENTS

November 10, 2018
Worldwide
UNESCO
World Science Day for Peace and Development
World Science Day for Peace and Development The theme for the November 10 celebration is “Science, a Human Right.” Join AAAS as we partner with the Association for Science-Technology Centers in a global livestreamed event. More info »

COALITION

Make Plans Now for the Coalition’s Tenth Anniversary October 23-25, 2019. Save the dates for the AAAS Science and Human Rights Coalition’s tenth anniversary celebration at AAAS headquarters in Washington, DC. More information coming soon!

APA Statement on Transgender Definition The American Psychological Association issued a statement on October 22 decrying the Administration’s apparent attempt to erase the transgender definition in Federal programs. Read more »

OPPORTUNITIES
Fellowship: Threatened Scholars (IEE Scholar Rescue Fund)

Call for Abstracts: Master of Human Rights Program (University of Minnesota)

Job: Geospatial Analyst (Human Rights Watch)

Job: Consultant for Secondary Trauma/Self-care Capacity Building (Vital Voices)

Job: Product Policy Director, Human Rights (Facebook)

NEWS
» Trump Administration Wants to Remove ‘Gender’ from U.N. Human Rights Documents (The Guardian)

» Report: More than 500,000 U.S. Households had Water Cut Off (AP)

» Global Partnerships and Human Rights Take Center Stage at this Year’s Social Good Summit (Mashable)

» How Statistics Doomed Washington State’s Death Penalty (The Atlantic)

» Dutch Appeals Court Upholds Landmark Climate Change Ruling (The Guardian)

» Coming of Age: Emerging Technologies and the World’s Children (Forbes)

READING LIST
America’s Secret Water Crisis (Food & Water Watch)

RESOURCES
Human Rights Projects: Guidelines for Scientists and Human Rights Organizations

Primer on Scientific Freedom and
Webinar: Evaluating Labor Conditions and Supply Chain Accountability (Postponed) Be on the lookout for more information. The webinar will address the “Most Significant Change” technique to evaluate labor conditions in an agricultural supply chain. Register »

Call for Syllabi: Science and Human Rights The Coalition is requesting recent syllabi addressing human rights in a university-level STEM course that can be added to the Coalition’s online collection. Syllabi can be sent to the Secretariat »

ON-CALL SCIENTISTS

Request an On-call Scientist! Does your human rights project need support from a scientific expert? On-call Scientists has 1,305 members from a wide range of disciplines who stand ready as volunteers for human rights. Request a volunteer »
February 2019

HIGHLIGHTS

AAAS CEO to Retire in 2019
Rush D. Holt, CEO of AAAS and executive publisher of the Science family of journals, has announced that he will retire later in 2019.
Read »

AAAS Annual Meeting
We will lead two sessions at the AAAS Annual Meeting this February: scientific integrity: best practices and legal protections for scientists. Also, join the AAAS Science and Human Rights Coalition for a workshop about human rights opportunities for scientists and to connect with Coalition members in the AAAS Lounge to learn more about how you can get involved!
Register »

Come Work with Us! The AAAS Scientific Responsibility, Human Rights and Law Program (SRHRL) is accepting applications for a Project Director to work to define and implement a vision for SRHRL’s activities in the areas of scientific integrity, research misconduct, ethics and the social responsibilities of scientists. Please submit applications by February 24. [Apply here »]

COALITION

Coalition Project Team to Present at NIH

Science and Human Rights Q&A
Coalition member and Kean University Provost, Jeff Toney, shares insights on science and human rights and explains why it is important to integrate human rights into research and education. [Read »]

Data in Service to Humanitarian Relief Abroad
On February 26 at 10:00 A.M. ET, join the Innovations in Human Rights Program Evaluation project team for a webinar with practitioners at the Harvard Humanitarian Initiative (HHI). [More info »]

OPPORTUNITIES

Rights of Scientists, Scholars, and Students Around the World
June 11-14, 2019
Tunis, Tunisia
Access Now
RightsCon 2019

Coalition Project Team to Present at NIH

Science and Human Rights Q&A
Coalition member and Kean University Provost, Jeff Toney, shares insights on science and human rights and explains why it is important to integrate human rights into research and education. [Read »]

Data in Service to Humanitarian Relief Abroad
On February 26 at 10:00 A.M. ET, join the Innovations in Human Rights Program Evaluation project team for a webinar with practitioners at the Harvard Humanitarian Initiative (HHI). [More info »]

OPPORTUNITIES

Rights of Scientists, Scholars, and Students Around the World
June 11-14, 2019
Tunis, Tunisia
Access Now
RightsCon 2019

Coalition Project Team to Present at NIH

Science and Human Rights Q&A
Coalition member and Kean University Provost, Jeff Toney, shares insights on science and human rights and explains why it is important to integrate human rights into research and education. [Read »]

Data in Service to Humanitarian Relief Abroad
On February 26 at 10:00 A.M. ET, join the Innovations in Human Rights Program Evaluation project team for a webinar with practitioners at the Harvard Humanitarian Initiative (HHI). [More info »]

OPPORTUNITIES

Rights of Scientists, Scholars, and Students Around the World
June 11-14, 2019
Tunis, Tunisia
Access Now
RightsCon 2019

Coalition Project Team to Present at NIH

Science and Human Rights Q&A
Coalition member and Kean University Provost, Jeff Toney, shares insights on science and human rights and explains why it is important to integrate human rights into research and education. [Read »]

Data in Service to Humanitarian Relief Abroad
On February 26 at 10:00 A.M. ET, join the Innovations in Human Rights Program Evaluation project team for a webinar with practitioners at the Harvard Humanitarian Initiative (HHI). [More info »]
Congressional Briefing: The Human Rights of Scientists, Scholars and Students
On March 22, 2019 at 12:00 P.M. ET, SPSSI will host a Congressional Lunch Briefing on protecting and promoting the human rights of scientists, scholars and students around the world. The briefing is sponsored by Coalition members AAAS, ACS and the American Psychological Association. Learn more »

Make Plans Now for the Coalition’s Tenth Anniversary October 23-25, 2019. Save the dates for the AAAS Science and Human Rights Coalition’s tenth anniversary conference at AAAS headquarters in Washington, DC. More information coming soon!

Call for Proposals: Science and Human Rights Conference
Share your innovative developments and applications of science and technology that support the efforts of human rights practitioners, as well as those that tackle human rights challenges associated with the conduct of science and application of technology. Learn more »

READING LIST
Broadening Conceptualizations of Transitional Justice through Using Technology: ICTs in the Context of Justicia y Paz in Colombia (The International Journal of Transitional Justice)

Call for Nominations: Human Rights Innovators The Coalition will recognize outstanding examples of human rights projects that have effectively incorporated science and technology to achieve their goals. Learn more »

ON-CALL SCIENTISTS

Welcome New Volunteers! Looking for an environmental toxicologist who is also a native Spanish speaker? A biologist who studies the response of animals and ecosystems to stressful influences? They joined the 1,300 members of On-call Scientists last month and are available to volunteer their time and expertise for human rights NGOs. More Info »

RESOURCES

Human Rights Projects: Guidelines for Scientists and Human Rights Organizations
Primer on Scientific Freedom and Human Rights
Bibliography: Science and Human Rights
Science and Human Rights Campus Event Toolkit
See more resources »

Manage Your E-mail Subscription Preferences | Unsubscribe | Privacy Policy | Forward to a friend
This email was sent on behalf of Special Announcements from AAAS/Science to: EJCAMBURN@AAAS.ORG

AAAS/Science | 1200 New York Avenue NW | Washington, DC 20005 | USA
+1 202-326-6602

Copyright © 2018 American Association for the Advancement of Science.