

AAAS Science and Human Rights Coalition
Planning Meeting III
December 10, 2007
Washington, DC

Agenda

- 9:00-9:10 am      Introductions and Progress Review
Mona Younis (AAAS Science and Human Rights Program)
- 9:10-10:00 am    Mission and Goals Statement, and Areas of Activity
Lee Herring (American Sociological Association) will present the two documents that he, Wendy Rotz (Washington Statistical Association) and Dinah Winnick (American Anthropological Association) drafted for our consideration.
- 10:00-10:45 am    “Human Rights”: What do we mean?
At our previous planning meetings, participants raised questions concerning our use of “human rights.” We will begin our exploration with two presentations:
- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International System
Jessica Wyndham (AAAS Science and Human Rights Program) will provide basic information about the international human rights system and its relevance for our work.
- “Human Rights” as it is used by Scientific Associations
Molly Brown (Association of American Geographers) will report on how scientific associations appear to be using “human rights” in their public statements and information materials.
- 10:45-11:00 am    Break
- 11:00-11:30 am    Coalition Models
Bahram Rajae (American Political Association) and Rob Albro (American Anthropological Association) will launch our exploration of appropriate coalition models, and the advantages and disadvantages of each, for our consideration.
- 11:30-12:00 pm    Next Steps
- Documents to be drafted for our next meeting:
    - Membership Statement
Beth Rudd (American Chemical Society)
    - Area of Activity: Welfare of Scientists
Michele Irwin (American Physical Society)
  - Next meeting: Saturday, February 16, 2008 (2:00-5:00 pm) in Boston: outreach and preparation
  - “Introducing Our Members” through the SHRP Newsletter

2:00-5:15 pm	Symposium and Working Meeting: “Rights and Responsibilities: Scientific Associations and International Human Rights Norms”
---------------------	---