

DoSER Newsletter, Winter 2016

Fostering dialogue between scientific and religious communities since 1995

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Happy New Year! DoSER is kicking off the year with two important activities that I want to bring to your attention: DoSER related events at the 2016 AAAS Annual Meeting and a unique opportunity for seminary faculty to apply to attend one of three faculty enrichment retreats this summer. Selected attendees receive travel support and a stipend. Don't miss these exciting opportunities!

2016 Annual Meeting | Washington, DC

Friday, February 12, 2016 | 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Omni Shoreham Hotel: Diplomat Ballroom

DoSER Reception, and Science for Religion Reporters award ceremony »

Saturday, February 13, 2016 | 10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Biodiversity, Scientists, and Religious Communities:

Conservation Through Collaboration

Register for the Annual Meeting

Sunday, February 14, 2016 | 10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Wilson C (Marriott Wardman Park)

Virtues of U.S. Scientists Guiding Scientific Practice »

Application deadline: February 15, 2016

Summer 2016 Science for Seminaries Faculty Enrichment Retreats

Mainline Protestant: June 20 – 23, 2016, Maine

Evangelical/Conservative Protestant: July 18 – 21, Oregon

Catholic/Orthodox: August 2 – 5, Maine

Generous stipend and travel support included

Learn more »

Learn more about the Science for Seminaries project »

Posted Friday at 9:21a.m.

Copyright © 2016 American Association for the Advancement of Science.

For more information about this event, contact doser@aaas.org.